This information is for RESTRICTED 'Now Banned' firearms:

Please find attached

- Deactivation Initial Information.pdf
- BLANK DEACTIVATION form RCMP form 5645e.pdf
  - Section A filled in and signed
  - section B if possible

We would require one of each form filled in for each firearm to be deactivated

Each firearm must be fully intact for shooting – including a magazine (steel preferable)

The registration certificate obtained when purchasing the firearm would be needed also

This information is for NON-RESTRICTED 'Now Banned' firearms:

- The form must be downloaded by the individual (your customer) from the buy-back web portal – we are unable to provide a link to this.

Once the deactivation has been downloaded by the individual, they give it to the business to fill out.

Once the gunsmithing is done and the paperwork is completed by the business, the paperwork is given back to the individual and they are responsible for uploading the document in the Buy-back web portal.

- Deactivation Initial Information.pdf

All personal information must be filled in by our customer and signed for the RCMP Forms
We require PHOTOCOPY/Scan of RPAL (front and back) and driver's license

Our BFL # 13045568

Once we have received the forms, we can arrange a time for you to drop them off
We do offer pick-up services for an additional cost

Generally, $350ea firearm plus tax

Once we have seen it, we can give you a better idea and estimate

Payment is due when we receive the firearm(s)

We do accept SHIPPED firearms

- They would need to be packaged properly by law to be shipped
  - We recommend a hard case for shipping
    - Wrap tape around ends and clasps so the case cannot open accidentally
    - Lock case
    - Lock firearm(s)
    - Ship as per the RCMP guidelines for shipping
- You would require prior approval from us to ship
- The shipment would need to come to our door
  - Extra charges for picking up at depos will apply
- We recommend insurance and signature options
- Please scan shipment information/ cost / insurance amount / tracking number and send this to us
  - We will return ship the same way
  - Or include a return Shipment PAID Label for us to use

Our shipping address is on this letterhead

Please call or email if you have any questions
